

Weighted Average Achievement

High School Level

The Weighted Average Achievement Indicator will be calculated for each accountability group in a accountability choice of the selected grade for each individual student. The calculation will be based on the BEDS Data and the achievement scores for each student. The calculation will be based on the BEDS Data and the achievement scores for each student. The calculation will be based on the BEDS Data and the achievement scores for each student.

