The CSO sent, from the CharterSchools mailbox to the Charter Listserv, information about the NYSED's commitment to community-based authorizing and the principles of equity and access for all students across New York State. Community-based authorizing is based on the principle that community stakeholder voice, and response to community need, is an integral component of charter school decision making at all levels. We hope to see evidence of community voice, as well as a commitment to the principles of diversity, equity, and inclusion, throughout the applications received through this RFP as well as in the portfolio of the existing Board of Regents-authorized charter schools.

contact with schools is required. Ask your schools if they can set up a video conference using the platform of their choice. If there is no other alternative, schedule a phone call, or other conferencing call such as Google Hangouts, or Microsoft Teams;

Include appropriate staff for each type of remote site visit (BoT chair/school leader minimally for check-ins);

Include time for discussion with the school leader who will accompany a CSO team member on the remote classroom observation. As per Appendix C (Classroom Observation Worksheet), you will speak with the school leader before and after the observation.

If you were going to participate in a BoT meeting, you can join their video conferences; and Access remote classroom learning in lieu of onsite observations.

- o Ask if you can be a silent participant in one of the school's remote learning sessions, or request that schools provide you with links to any pre-recorded instructional content they are using during this time.
- o Just as we do for on-site classroom observations, use _____ (Classroom Observation Worksheet) as a lens by which you should provide feedback to the school
