| District superintendents of Boards ofCooperative Educational Services(BOCES) must determine the adequacyand appropriateness of the facilitiesspace available to house specialeducation programs in the geographicarea served by the BOCES.  | Ed. L. §2215(17) (asadded by Chapter 57of the Laws of 2013)8 NYCRR§200.2(g) | Federal law does not specifyhow a state must ensure spacein facilities to meet the needs ofstudents with disabilities andleast restrictive environmentresponsibilities.   |
| The school district of residence is thelocal educational agency (LEA) anddevelops the individualized educationprogram (IEP) for charter schoolstudents.   | Ed. L. §2853(4)   | Federal law leaves it to thestates to decide whether charterschools are LEAs or areschools of a school district.  |
| Requires the Committee on SpecialEducation (CSE), upon a determinationthat a student no longer needs specialeducation services, to identify andrecommend appropriate declassificationsupport services that will be provided tothe student for the first year in thegeneral education program. | Ed. L. §3602(1)(i)(2)8 NYCRR§200.4(d)(1)(iii)                                       | Federal regulations require thatthe IEP team determinecontinued eligibility for specialeducation, but there is nofederal requirement thatrequires the IEP team to makerecommendations for a studentupon declassification. |
| School districts must have an approvedplan for the use of State public excesscost aid in the most educationallyadvantageous manner.   | Ed. L. §3602(10)(a)   | Federal law does not imposeplanning requirements relatingto the use of State aid.   |
